The House having agreed to consider the committee amendment section by section.

Mr. Kayton offered the following amendment to the committee amendment:

Amend committee amendment No. 1 to House Bill No. 1 by striking out Section 11 thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 11. The funds derived from the sale of the bonds herein issued, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, shall be administered by the Texas Relief Commission, in the same manner and for the same purposes as provided in Chapter 37, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and in Chapter 15, Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature.

"The Texas Relief Commission shall be composed of three members, who shall be appointed as follows: One by the Attorney General of the State of Texas, one by the Comptroller of the State of Texas, and one by the Treasurer of the State of Texas. The Governor and his successors in office shall be ex-officio Chairman of said Commission, but shall not be entitled to a vote except in the case of a tie vote. The remaining three members of the Commission shall take the constitutional oath of office and shall serve as full-time appointees and shall be paid a salary of four hundred dollars ($400) a month each. At its first meeting the Commission shall elect from its membership a chairman pro tem., who shall preside in all matters in the absence of the Governor, and a secretary who shall keep a record of all minutes and be responsible therefor.

"It shall be the duty of the Texas Relief Commission to employ and discharge any and all employees.

"The Texas Relief Commission as herein created shall be expressly charged with the proper administration of the funds provided for in this Act and of the relief problems arising thereunder."

Mr. Pope offered the following substitute for the amendment by Mr. Kayton:

Substitute for amendment to committee amendment No. 1 to House Bill No. 1 by striking out Section 11 thereof, and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

"Section 11. The funds derived from the sale of the bonds herein issued, except as herein otherwise specifically provided, shall be administered by the Texas Relief Commission, in the same manner and for the same purposes as provided in Chapter 37, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and in Chapter 15, Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, provided the Texas Relief Commission as herein composed shall be in lieu of the Texas Relief Commission and the Director and Assistant Director created and composed under the provisions and authority of said Chapter 37, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and said Chapter 15, Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and the salaries and expenses provided in said Acts to be paid to the members of said original Texas Relief Commission and said Director and Assistant Director shall cease when this Act becomes effective.

"The Texas Relief Commission shall be composed of three members, who shall be appointed as follows: One by the Governor of the State of Texas, one by the Lieutenant Governor of the State of Texas, and one by the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the State of Texas. The members of the Commission shall take the constitutional oath of office and shall serve as full-time appointees and shall be paid a salary of three hundred dollars ($300) a month each. At its first meeting the Commission shall elect from its membership a chairman pro tem., who shall preside in all matters, and a secretary who shall keep the record of all minutes and be responsible therefor. Vacancies on said Commission shall be filled by the official making the original appointment of the person whose place becomes vacant. No original appointment shall be effective until approved by the House and Senate of the Third Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature.

"It shall be the duty of the Texas Relief Commission to employ and discharge any and all employes, by majority vote, and without other formality, but this duty shall not supersede the authority of county boards to select county administrators.

"The Texas Relief Commission as herein created shall be expressly charged with the proper administration of the funds provided for in this Act and of the relief problems arising thereunder, and shall dispose of all property and equipment heretofore and hereafter purchased for use in distributing relief funds and in the administration of this Act and expend the proceeds therefrom as herein provided, and this Act, and said Chapter 37, Acts of the First Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, and said Chapter 15, Acts of the Second Called Session of the Forty-third Legislature, shall in all respects, save as to the provisions for the payment of said bonds, cease, and shall be in all respects repealed and become null and void as of May 1, 1935, and sooner if said funds are expended before May 1, 1935; provided, however, that the agencies charged with the duty of expending Federal funds in the State of Texas may direct the expenditure of said Federal funds through the Texas Relief Commission and the set-up herein authorized but without expense or obligation on the part of the State of Texas.

"Only those who are now and were bona fide resident citizens of the State of Texas on January 1, 1933, shall be employed to perform any of the functions hereby authorized.

"Said Texas Relief Commission shall adopt strict rules and regulations to be faithfully observed by case workers to the end that those who can work or provide at least a part of their keep shall do so under penalty of permanent removal from any and all classes of relief; and all files, records, and reports of case workers shall be open for inspection as other public records."

(Pending consideration of the substitute amendments, Mr. Mathis occupied the Chair temporarily.)

(Speaker in the Chair.)

Mr. Daniel raised a point of order on further consideration of the amendment by Mr. Pope, on the ground that the amendment is not germane to the section of the committee amendment under consideration.

The Speaker overruled the point of order.

Question recurring on the amendment by Mr. Pope, yeas and nays were demanded.

TRIBUTE TO JOURNAL CLERK

Mr. Latham and others offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Our esteemed co-worker, J. L. Robinson, has served faithfully and well the Legislature of Texas for forty-two years, beginning as Assistant Journal Clerk of the House of Representatives during the administration of the memorable Governor James Stephen Hogg; and

Whereas, Since the days of Governor Tom Campbell, he has chronicled the proceedings of successive sessions of the Legislature, recording its blunders with understanding and its acts of statesmanship with appreciation; and

Whereas, His faithfulness to duty and efficiency of service has written a page in the minds of those he met as permanent as the records he keeps; and

Whereas, The long procession of Members that have passed before him have constantly commended his work to those who were to follow, linking to his name an unbroken chain of approval; and

Whereas, The toll of time has exacted his labors from coming sessions of the Texas Legislature, and his retirement directs our attention to looking backward over his years of service molded into a monument of work well done; therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives of the Forty-third Legislature, Third Called Session, That we pause to pay tribute to J. L. Robinson, and to present to him a gift from the membership, not as a measure, but as an emblem of our admiration and respect for "Uncle Jim," as we fondly call him.

Signed—Coke Stevenson, Speaker; Adamson, Aikin, Alexander, Alsup, Anderson, Atchison, Baker, Barrett, Barron, Beck, Bedford, Bergman, Bourne, Bradley, Burns, Butler, Calvert, Camp, Canon, Cathey, Caven, Celaya, Chastain, Clayton, Colson, Coombes, Cowley, Crossely, Daniel, Davidson, Dean, Devall, Dunagan, Dunlap, Duvall, Dwyer, Engelhard, Fain, Fisher, Ford, Fuchs, Glass, Golson, Good, Goodman, Graves, Greathouse, Griffith, Hankamer, Harman, Harris, Harrison, Hartzog, Head, Hicks, Hill, Hodges, Holekamp, Holland, Holloway, Hoskins, Huddleston, Hughes, Hunt, Hunter, Hyder, Jackson, James, Jefferson, Johnson of Anderson, Johnson of Dimmit, Jones of Atascosa, Jones of Runnels, Jones of Shelby, Kayton, Kyle of Hays, Kyle of Palo Pinto, Laird, Lange, Latham, Lemens, Leonard, Long, Lotief, Magee, Mackay, Mathis, McCullough, McDougald, McGregor, McKee, Merritt, Metcalfe, Mitcham, Moffett, Moore, Morrison, Morse, Munson, Nicholson, Palmer, Parkhouse, Patterson, Pavlica, Pope, Puryear, Ramsey, Ratliff, Ray, Reader, Reed of Bowie, Reed of Dallas, Renfro, Riddle, Roark, Roberts, Rogers of Hunt, Rogers of Ochiltree, Rollins, Russell, Savage, Scarborough, Scott, Shannon, Shults, Smith, Stanfield, Steward, Stinson, Stovall, Stubbeman, Tarwater, Tennyson, Thomas, Tillery, Townsend, Turlington, Van Zandt, Wagstaff, Walker, Weinert, Wells, Winningham, Wood, Young.

The resolution was read second time.

On motion of Mr. Leonard, a page in the Journal was ordered set aside for the resolution.

The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Hon. Emmett Morse of Harris County, on behalf of the Members of the House, presented Mr. Robinson with a radio and pipe.

Mr. Robinson then thanked the Members of the House, and, on motion of Mr. Savage, his remarks were ordered printed in the Journal:

To the Members of the House of Representatives:

I want to extend to you my deep appreciation for your manifestation of friendship. And I want to assure you that I deeply appreciate this kindness you have shown me.

My work in the House has been very pleasant, and I have enjoyed it very much. I have also enjoyed my association with you. It was indeed painful to realize that on account of my age, I should not attempt to continue in the service of the House.

My association with the Members of the House will always be cherished.

I hope you one and all a pleasant time during the Forty-fourth Legislature, and have great confidence in your doing much valuable work for this State.

I wish you all much success throughout your lives.

RECESS

On motion of Mr. Anderson, the House, at 12:15 o'clock p. m., took recess to 2 o'clock p. m., today.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The House met at 2 o'clock p. m., and was called to order by the Speaker.

PROVIDING FOR PHOTOGRAPHS
OF HON. J. L. GOODMAN AND
HON. F. C. WEINERT

Mr. Parkhouse offered the following resolution:

Whereas, Among the membership of the Forty-third Legislature there are two of Texas' most valuable and distinguished public servants; and

Whereas, These men have served their State long and well in various places of public trust and have dedicated the best part of their lives to the service of this State; and

Whereas, Those of us who have been associated with these gentlemen have learned to love, honor, and respect them; and

Whereas, After long and useful years of service these gentlemen have retired from public life, and we who know them are desirous of preserving their memory as an example worthy to follow; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, That suitable photographs of the Honorable F. C. Weinert, Guadalupe County, and of the Honorable J. L. Goodman, Robertson County, be secured and hung in a suitable place on the walls of the House of Representatives.

APPENDIX

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS

The Committee on Highways and Motor Traffic filed a favorable report on House Bill No. 9.

The Committee on Highways and Motor Traffic filed an adverse report on Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 3.

In Memory of Robert Lincoln Marquis

Mr. Hyder offered the following resolution :

Whereas, Across the lush green and bright flowering of a new spring upon this our Lone Star State a shadow has fallen, for a leader has gone away. A leader, who never once turned a deaf ear to the slightest call of duty or service, has gone to answer a more imperious summons issued from those silent halls; and

Whereas, In the passing of Robert Lincoln Marquis, those who have followed his leadership, are quick to recognize the loss of a great man from the front of our ranks, a mighty spirit and a powerful intellect. The College, which he helped to expand into a great institution, has lost a head whose influence will continue to live, not only in its material development, but in the shaping of its policies and ideals. This State is deprived of a valued educator, and the teaching profession has lost a far-visioned idealist, whose work has been a mighty national force in strengthening and dignifying his profession. He believed that no king was ever anointed to holier service than the schoolmaster; that the highest calling was to prepare young people for better, happier, nobler living. In a word, he was an exemplar of the abundant life; and

Whereas, The loss of this great leader is deep, the loss of this man to his friends is greater. His was the great heart, his the universal spirit "who hath mightily won God out of knowledge and good out of infinite pain." Within his kindly nature the pitcher of loving kindness was never drained dry, and many a thirsty spirit has been revived by its beneficence. Robert Lincoln Marquis was a man tolerant and kind in his attitudes, broad in his sympathies, and above all, courageous in spirit. Realizing that he was doomed to silence and the grave, he wore his cross like a decoration, "never turned his back, but marched breast forward," a gallant spirit to the last. His work does not die with him. Of President Marquis it might fittingly have been written: "A superior and commanding human intellect, a truly great man, when Heaven vouchsafes so rare a gift, is not a temporary flame, burning brightly for a while, then expiring, giving place to returning darkness. It is rather a spirit of fervent heat, as well as radiant light, with power to enkindle the common mass of the human mind, so that when it glimmers in its own decay and finally goes out in death, no night follows, but it leaves the world all light, all on fire, from the potent contact of its own great spirit"; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, of the Forty-third Legislature, in the Third Called Session assembled, That we deeply regret the untimely passing of Robert Lincoln Marquis, and with his family, the loving wife and strong sons, and his devoted sisters, we mingle our tears, and pray that through their and our own cypress trees we may all be able to discern the stars shining. And that a page of today's House Journal be set aside in memory, and as a living monument to this a truly great man; be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be instructed to forward an enrolled copy hereof to the family, and to the official head of the North Texas State Teachers College at Denton, Texas.

HYDER,
VAN ZANDT,
BEDFORD.

The resolution was read second time.

On motion of Mr. Kayton, the names of all the Members were added to the resolution as signers thereof.

Signed—Coke Stevenson, Speaker; Adamson, Aikin, Alexander, Alsup, Anderson, Atchison, Baker, Barrett, Barron, Beck, Bergman, Bourne, Bradley, Burns, Butler, Calvert, Camp, Canon, Cathey, Caven, Celaya, Chastain, Clayton, Colson, Coombes, Cowley, Crossley, Daniel, Davidson, Dean, Devall, Dunagan, Dunlap, Duvall, Dwyer, Engelhard, Fain, Fisher, Ford, Fuchs, Glass, Golson, Good, Goodman, Graves, Greathouse, Griffith, Hankamer, Harman, Harris, Harrison, Hartzog, Head, Hicks, Hill, Hodges, Holekamp, Holland, Holloway, Hoskins, Huddleston, Hughes, Hunt, Hunter, Jackson, James, Jefferson, Johnson of Anderson, Johnson of Dimmit, Jones of Atascosa, Jones of Runnels, Jones of Shelby, Kayton, Kyle of Hays, Kyle of Palo Pinto, Laird, Lange, Latham, Lemens, Leonard, Lindsey, Long, Lotief, Magee, Mackay, Mathis, McCullough, McDougald, McGregor, McKee, Merritt, Metcalfe, Mitcham, Moffett, Moore, Morrison, Morse, Munson, Nicholson, Palmer, Parkhouse, Patterson, Pavlica, Pope, Puryear, Ramsey, Ratliff, Ray, Reader, Reed of Bowie, Reed of Dallas, Renfro, Riddle, Roark, Roberts, Rogers of Hunt, Rogers of Ochiltree, Rollins, Russell, Savage, Scarborough, Scott, Shannon, Shults, Smith, Stanfield, Steward, Stinson, Stovall, Stubbeman, Tarwater, Tennyson, Thomas, Tillery, Townsend, Turlington, Vaughan, Wagstaff, Walker, Weinert, Wells, Winningham, Wood, Young.

Question recurring on the resolution, it was unanimously adopted.
